

JACQUELINE

Age 17

Acrylic on Canvas

Norton Museum of Art Inspiration: The Body Says, I am a Fiesta : The Figure in Latin American Art special exhibition

Teaching Artist Ingrid Sanchez

Jacqueline focused on representing the shadow of her figure as she was strolling through a beautiful garden. In the painting, we can observe a pattern of butterflies, shapes, and flowers, contrasted against a solid blue background. The artist chose to portray the negative space within the landscape.