

SHYANN

Age 18

Acrylic on Canvas

Norton Museum of Art Inspiration: The Body Says, I am a Fiesta: The Figure in Latin American Art special exhibition

Teaching Artist Ingrid Sanchez

This artist intends for her portrait to depict the many facets of someone's personality. She wanted to do a fractured portrait with different angles. Shyann found inspiration by looking at Cubist works by Georges Braque from the Norton's Collection. We went over how to mix complementary colors as well as create texture with acrylic paint.